HOLDING SUPPORT 7-28-23

After a concerning late day reversal printing reversal candles in many indexes and stocks, the market is holding support levels today after some good earnings and inflation data, We know the still by now - don't get caught up with post Fed volatility until true direction reveals itself. Until we get a strong signal indicating the trend is slowing, we continue to have a bullish bias.

Market breadth indicators are still strong and price action is healthy.

Semis and housing ETFs are strong after a strong bout of earnings. Next week we have plenty of small cap and retail stocks, along with big boys AAPL and AMZN. Once they report all the major QQQ players will have posted earnings. So far so good.

Stocks in play include IOT, META, GOOGL, NVDA, SHOP, ISRG, ROKUE, SFI, PDD, CELH, ROKU, SKX, BZH, TSLA, ZM.

MARKET BREADTH ANALYSIS

UUP US Dollar

There has been an inverse relationship between the US Dollar and the stock market. For the market to continue to break out, we want to see UUP pullback from this current resistance range. If it breaks out, that could be ominous for the market.
